Sir,

I have the honor to state that there is no Government buildings for the Anna Chattra at Grama. It is held at present in the Chattram built by one Narasimhaiya and others at their request. As they — failed to keep the building in good order, the Jodi Inam granted therefor was resumed and brought under Government management in [illegible]

Year Sarvajithu (1887-88)

2. The building is now reported to be under need of repairs and the Deputy Amildar of Grama has therefore sent up an Estimate amounting to Rs49 for repairing it and I beg to submit the same for sanction. The Cost may be met from the "Surplus Funds" at credit of the Chathram being the Savings accrued from the produce of the Inam lands resumed. The Vernacular papers ending with Treasury Officer's Yadi No. 439 Dated 29th August last are also forwarded for reference and return. —
